

Oil, Propane and HVAC Service Technicians (Peabody)

Holden Oil is looking for service and installation technicians to join our team. Great pay and benefits. Interesting and varied year round work. Company provided training to help further your career.

Holden Oil is big enough to provide you with lots of opportunities but small enough to appreciate your work.

A Service Technician for Holden Oil responds to residential and commercial customers to provide repair, maintenance and installation work on various types of oil or gas burning equipment, propane tanks and equipment or air conditioning units. Service Technician participate in an "on call" rotation to cover off hours emergency calls.

--Service Technician Responsibilities and Duties--

Drive a service vehicle to customer sites. Vehicle must be operated in a safe and courteous manner at all times.

Professionally represent Holden Oil to the customer.

Efficiently assess the needs of the call and professionally respond with the use of technical knowledge and skills.

Physically able to move heating equipment or propane tanks with the help of hand trucks, ramps and other mechanical aids.

--Service Technician Qualifications and Skills--

High school diploma or equivalent

Must have Mass Oil Burner technicians cert., HVAC license or Gas fitter or LP Installers License

At least 21 years old with a valid drivers license. Must be able to upgrade license to a CDL C with Haz Mat endorsement. CDL B, tanker haz mat preferred. Hoisting License helpful. A/C License also a plus.

Willingness to work in all weather conditions

Proficient verbal and written communications skills. Ability to use and adopt new technologies.

--Benefits--

Medical, Dental, FSA

401(k) with company match

Paid vacation and company holidays

Performance and safety bonuses